Package overview

Everest View Trek is a short trekking route in the Everest region, designed for travellers who wish to see Mount Everest but have limited time or prefer a less demanding walking journey. The trek combines the spiritual, cultural and natural attractions of Nepal’s Everest region. The trek begins at Lukla, at 2,828 m, and passes through Sherpa settlements including Phakding, Namche Bazaar, Khunde, Khumjung and Phortse, along with other small villages.
